January

One Warm Coat

January 2 – February 28, 2019 OASIS Lobby

We will be collecting new and gently used coats and jackets for our local homeless population. Please look through your closet and give to this very worthy cause.

TNT Lecture: “In Our Eyes, In Our Words”

Tuesday, January 15, 6pm, Event Center, FREE

Presented by: Jeff Horn, Emeritus Professor of Drawing and Painting at Irvine Valley College will present selected charcoal portraits from his book, In Our Eyes, In Our Words, Portraits from the Edge of Society. This book poignantly depicts Orange County's homeless. These portraits are accompanied by handwritten statements from Jeff's subjects.

Financial Presentation – Investment Concerns in a Fragile Market

Wednesday, January 16, 2019 10am Room 5

Presented by: SOFA The Society for Financial Awareness

How do we maintain our investments' value in the volatile market? How much risk should we take? Are rising interest rates going to ruin my bond portfolio? These questions have plagued retirees recently, but history and research hold some answers for you. Come discover answers to your investment concerns based on the last six decades of peer reviewed, economic research.
