

PUBLIC POLICY COURSES

JOSHUA STONE, MPP

Politics of Protest

This course examines the evolution of protest politics in the United States. From the Tea Party Movement to Occupy Wall Street, we will explore the tactics these and other protest groups have employed to achieve their political goals.

Mondays, 1/27-3/23

5:00-6:30pm
$60/8 classes

2020 Election

This course examines the policies, people and politics of the 2020 election. This course is for those seeking to listen and share their views on the current state of the 2020 Presidential election and the policies driving public debate.

Thursdays, 1/30-3/26

5:00-6:30pm
$60/8 classes

U.S. International Conflict Management

This course will examine the current and historical state of conflict management around the world. From hot wars to refugee crises, we will explore the policies and actions of the U.S. to contend with global conflicts.

Thursdays, 1/30-3/26

6:45-8:15pm
$60/8 classes

Register in person or online, www.newportbeachca.gov/oasis

OASIS Senior Center 949-644-3244 www.newportbeachca.gov/oasis