City Seeks Applicants to Fill Vacancies on Boards & Commissions
Application Deadline is Wednesday, May 13

NEWPORT BEACH, Ca. -- The Newport Beach City Council is seeking qualified electors from the City of Newport Beach who are interested in serving a four-year term on various city boards and commissions. A total of nine vacancies will exist when terms expire on June 30, 2009. The vacancies are as follows:

- Board of Library Trustee – one vacancy
- City Arts Commission – three vacancies
- Civil Service Board – one vacancy
- Harbor Commission – two vacancies
- Parks, Beaches & Recreation Commission – two vacancies
- Planning Commission – two vacancies.

The deadline for filing applications is 4 p.m. on Wednesday, May 13, 2009. Applications and additional information about the boards and commissions is available from the City Clerk's Office located at 3300 Newport Boulevard, by calling 949-644-3005, or through the city's website at www.city.newport-beach.ca.us, under Departments/City Clerk/Citizen Participation.

The City Council will nominate two individuals for each vacancy at its regular meeting on June 9 and appointments will be made at the June 23 regular City Council meeting. All appointments become effective on July 1. For additional information, please contact the City Clerk's Office at 949-644-3005.
