

Due to the ongoing COVID-19 pandemic, the Newport Beach Fire Department will offer a fall 2020 Community Emergency Response Team (CERT) program utilizing on-line CERT trainings (OnlineCERT.org), zoom trainings with the required “hands-on” practical portions of the program postponed until spring 2021. Interested participants are encouraged to register at www.nbcert.org. Have questions about the program? Email nbcert@nbfd.net or call (949) 644-3112.

Newport Beach Fire Department

Community Emergency Response Team (CERT) program

Fall 2020 CERT program schedule

Saturday, September 19 (9:00 am-noon, Zoom training)

Need to have University of Utah on-line CERT Units completed prior to zoom training:

Unit 0: Disaster Types, Unit 1: Disaster Preparedness, Unit 6: The CERT Organization and Unit 7: Disaster Psychology

Zoom training will cover Newport Beach: Disaster Preparedness/ CERT Program overview, Introduction to Fire Operations, Disaster Psychology/Team Organization and CPR

Saturday, September 26 (9:00 am-noon, Zoom training)

Need to have University of Utah on-line CERT Units completed prior to zoom training:

Unit 3: Disaster Medical Operations, Part 1, Unit 4: Disaster Medical Operations, Part 2

Zoom training will cover Newport Beach: Disaster Medical Operations I and II

Saturday, October 3 (9:00 am-noon, Zoom training)

Need to have University of Utah on-line CERT Units completed prior to Zoom training:

Unit 5: Light Search and Rescue Operations and Unit 8: Terrorism

Zoom training will cover Newport Beach: Light Search and Rescue I and II and Terrorism Awareness

Saturday, October 10 (9:00 am-noon, Zoom training)

Need to have University of Utah on-line CERT Units completed prior to Zoom training:

Unit 2: Fire Safety and Utility Control and Unit 9: Final Exam

Zoom training will cover Newport Beach: Fire Suppression, “Drill the Skills” and next steps