

Orange County Natural History

2010 Lecture Series

June 2—Native American Uses of Local Plants

Stephen O'Neil, Cultural Anthropologist

July 7—Birds of Upper Newport Bay

Mark Kincheloe, Naturalist and Friends

August 4—Common Arthropods of Orange County

Bob Allen, Entomologist / Botanist and nature photographer

September 1—Grunion on our Beaches

Melissa Studer, Grunion Greeter Project Director

October 6—Endangered Light-footed Clapper Rail

Dick Zembal, Resources Director, Orange County Water District

November 3—Tidepools: Survival in the "Hood"

Marty Sorkin, Ocean Institute and Crystal Cove State Park, Docent

7-9 PM—Lectures held at Back Bay Science Center

Reservations recommended— 949-644-3038 or email: tidepools@newportbeachca.gov

Not appropriate for under 12 years old.

Attendees need to be prompt; FRONT GATE OPEN 6:30-7:15 PM.

Back Bay Science Center (BBSC) is located at Shellmaker Island 600 Shellmaker Road,

